Lesson Sample Comptine

Piano Solo - Intermediate

This modern neo-classical piece by the French composer Yann Tiersen is a clever piece which builds upon a recurring pattern in the left hand. The four sections continuously develop the themes until, by the end of the piece, you have been carried on a musical adventure while never leaving the underpinning sea of the left hand's repeating pattern. The lesson starts with a full demonstration of the song followed by a detailed "by ear" lesson demonstrating and explaining every phrase and note of the song. This is a fast way to learn this moving piece while memorizing it at the same time.

Little Star Lesson Sample

"Little Star" is a modern version of "theme and variation" layered upon a childhood tune everyone will recognize. Jim Brickman's arrangement starts with a simple version of the song and then builds on it in complexity and style creating a delightful adventure for the listener. This song is also great to learn because the student will learn several chord arpeggio variations for the left hand that are currently being used in most "neo-classical" piano arrangements. This lesson begins with a complete demonstration of the piece and then talks you through the entire arrangement, note-by-note, in two to four measure sections, describing every note and finger used to play this song. Each track breaks down the song in two to four measure sections so it is easy to navigate through the lesson track by track.
